PORTES OUVERTES DES ATELIERS D'ARTISTES DE BELLEVILLE

29th Edition

Over four special days, art-lovers, amateur collectors and curious urbanites are invited to explore the Parisian neighbourhood of Belleville and discover the artists of today. The event gives an exceptional panoramic view of contemporary creation and is a rare opportunity to meet and discuss with artists. In the intimate space of their ateliers, the artists will expose their works and their creative process, sources of inspiration and techniques .... Mark your calendars for May!

Overview of the event:

- Over 200 artists
- Over 100 ateliers open to the public
- Over 30 artistic disciplines represented (photography, sculpture, installation, engraving, ceramics, drawing, collage, serigraphy)
- An expected 50 000 visitors

A little history of Les Ateliers d'Artistes de Belleville

In 1989, as the demolitions of Lower Belleville and its numerous artist workshops were underway, the non-profit Les AAB (association law 1901) was formed. Recognized for its contribution and its non-profit status, today it reunites 250 artists and works all year to showcase the cultural richness of Belleville via exhibition programs at the AAB gallery, organization of the Portes Ouvertes event, projects in the neighbourhood, exchanges ...
