EXPOSITION

Terms of exhibition at the AAB Gallery

The « AAB Gallery » is an exhibition space located at 1 rue Francis Picabia, 75020 Paris near the Couronnes metro station (line 2). Around twenty collective and individual exhibitions are organised each year.

The exhibitions are scheduled for a two-week period, and are open to the public on eight days (from Thursday to Sunday, from 2:00 to 7:00 pm). Each exhibitor is in charge of the organisation of its project (preparation, hanging, opening, etc.) and is responsible for hosting the public during the exhibition.

The main hanging area measures 20 linear meters (a second area, with narrow or less visible walls, extends to 10 linear meters). The walls are fitted with picture rails (beaded wires, hooks) and the ceiling has adjustable spotlight rails. We also have ten pedestals and video equipment (flat screen tv and projector).

The participation fee is 600 € (300 € for AAB members), to be shared between the exhibitors. For group exhibitions that combine members and non-members, the participation fee is 300 € increased to 50 € per non-member artist.

A 250 € deposit is required and returned after the exhibition and key restitution, place and equipment returned in good conditions, cleaning done.

The sales are made by the organiser, no fees are charged by the AAB.
